

CIRCLE

Center for Interreligious and Communal Leadership Education

Founded in 2008 with a generous grant from the Henry Luce Foundation, the Center for Interreligious and Communal Leadership Education (CIRCLE) is a joint initiative of Andover Newton Theological School and Hebrew College. CIRCLE's mission is to nurture a new generation of moral and spiritual leaders equipped for service in a religiously diverse world.

The work of CIRCLE is rooted in the cultivation of authentic relationships between the students, faculty and staff of the two schools. Together, we seek to help transform the ways that religious communities engage in the work of creating a more just and compassionate world. While our primary focus is on "Faith Hill," CIRCLE is also part of a growing national and international conversation about the role of interfaith engagement in religious education and leadership.

CIRCLE

Center for Interreligious and Communal Leadership Education

210 Herrick Road
Newton Centre, Massachusetts 02459 hebrewcollege.edu
ants.edu

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Gregory Mobley, PhD, Co-director
Andover Newton Theological School
gmobley@ants.edu

Jennifer Peace, PhD, Managing Director
CIRCLE
jpeace@ants.edu

Rabbi Or Rose, Co-director Hebrew College
orose@hebrewcollege.edu

Hebrew College and Andover Newton Theological School are accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges. Andover Newton is also accredited by the Association of Theological Schools.

hebrewcollege.edu/accreditation ants.edu/academics/accreditation

