COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This class is an introduction to basic concepts of Torah cantillation. Emphasis will be placed on acquiring skills needed to chant Torah on weekdays, Sabbaths and Festivals using a common Ashkenazi trope. Topics will also include the rituals surrounding the Torah service, the history of cantillation/trope, correct contemporary pronunciation of biblical Hebrew, and the underlying syntactic structure of the system of cantillation. Prerequisite: Hebrew 4 or permission of the instructor

Cannot count for graduate credit for Cantorial Ordination students

While this course is primarily for rabbinical students, others are welcome (depending on size of the class), provided they have adequate sense of musical pitch and the ability to read and translate biblical Hebrew (with the help of a dictionary).

REQUIREMENTS:
- Attendance: Students are expected to attend each class session and to participate fully. Problems affecting attendance should be brought to the instructors’ attention immediately.
- Learning cantillation melodies (with the voice that you have been given): Students are expected to go over chanting from class; prepare texts as required.
- In-class performances will take place on a weekly basis: Singing cantillation patterns together, as well as in chevruta and individually.

EVALUATION: The final grade will be based on:
- Attendance, participation, weekly preparation/performance of texts 20%
- Oral Quiz (November 7) 20%; Written final exam (December 12) 20%
- Individual oral final exam (by one hour appointments between December 1-15) 40%
  - Students are expected to perform smoothly and confidently, demonstrating mastery of formal pronunciation, appropriate phrasing of conjunctives and disjunctives, expressive reading, and a deep understanding of the text.
  - Each student will chant assigned Rosh Hodesh Torah aliyah from unpunctuated tikkun. The rest of the Rosh Hodesh reading (Numbers 28: 1-15) will be chanted from a pointed text (with vowels and cantillation marks).
  - Each student will prepare to cantillate assigned aliyah of a Torah portion from scroll to be done in the Beit Midrash in February (see below for more details).
  - Each student will chant (with 5 minutes preparation) several verses of Torah (sight-chanting).
This course is primarily "skill-based" in nature, so academic papers are not required.

No class on Friday, December 19 (I am out of the country)

This class will chant the Rosh Hodesh Torah reading scheduled for services on Rosh Hodesh Adar in the Beit Midrash - Thursday, February 19th & Friday, February 20th.
You must be at services both days to support your Torah reading classmates.

This is a short semester for Friday classes so please know that I am available to meet with you individually or in small groups at mutually convenient times - we will arrange a few of those at the beginning of the semester.

I also suggest that you start working on the actual text of the Rosh Hodesh reading (Numbers 28: 1-15) right away, even before we have learned all the melodies. You want the text to flow. You also will have a translation assignment (word-for-word) that you can start on at the beginning of the semester.
