Course Description

The focus of this course will be an in-depth study of selected topics in Hebrew grammar, with an emphasis on the grammatical features of Biblical Hebrew. The course will build upon and assumes the students’ prior knowledge of general Hebrew grammar, including mastery of the Hebrew verb system. To the extent possible, the texts from which we will draw our illustrations will be coordinated with the Rabbinical School’s Shanah Aleph Tanakh Core curriculum.

Classes will consist of “frontal” presentation of grammatical concepts, and of reading texts and applying those concepts. Homework will include exercises and text preparation. The language of instruction will generally be English, although Hebrew will be used where appropriate.

Although the focus of the course will be on pre-Modern Hebrew, connections will be made to the grammar and vocabulary of Modern Hebrew.

Course Materials

A Hebrew Bible (Tanakh), such as one published by Koren Publishers, that repeats pre- and post-positive cantillation marks on the stressed syllable (as will be explained in the first class session)

H.N. Bock, The Phonology of Classical Hebrew for Students of Modern Hebrew (instructor-supplied)
