LIFECYCLE OFFICIATING (INTD-580)

Tuesdays, 9:00 to 11:00 am  Rav-Hazzan Scott Sokol, PhD: Instructor
Phone: 617-559-8620  E-mail: ssokol@hebrewcollege.edu

Description
Students will be trained to officiate at a variety of Jewish lifecycle events, including weddings, funerals, unveilings and baby-namings. Traditional as well as contemporary rituals will be explored. Emphasis will be placed on both musical and textual aspects of these ceremonies.
Prerequisite: Hebrew fluency and the ability to read music, or permission of the instructor

Requirements

- Class attendance, completion of reading and written assignments (to be announced) and class presentations.

Required Text

Recommended Texts

Approximate Sequence

I-  Introduction
   A) What is a Life-Cycle Event?
   B) What are Jewish Life-Cycles?

II-  Peru Urvu

III-  V’shinantam L’vanecha

IV-  Rofei Cholei Amo Yisrael

V-  Kol Sason v’chol simcha

VI-  Hamakom y’nachem etchem